3M has donated $1200 to the chorus in recognition of the volunteer efforts in 2004 of chorus members who are 3M employees and retirees. As part of the 3M Volunteer Match program, the 3M Foundation will donate $200 to eligible non-profit organizations for which a 3M employee or retiree volunteers 25 hours or more per calendar year. 3M employees, Dave Liebenow and Cliff Turnbull; and 3M retirees, Ted Bolles, Duane Hall, John Lynch, and Jerry Herbst donated a combined total of over 900 hours to the chorus in 2004.

"3M employees and retirees donate thousands of hours to their communities each year," said Alex Cirillo, staff vice president, 3M Community Affairs and Workforce Diversity. "We are pleased to recognize and support their commitment to helping others."
