

Croix Chordsmen Receive River Falls Legion Award

Commander Howie Nelson (left) of the American Legion Post # 121 in River Falls, Wisconsin, recently visited the Croix Chordsmen at their Tuesday night rehearsal in Stillwater. He is shown here presenting President, Duane Hall with a certificate of appreciation from the River Falls Legion Post, for their participation in the annual Memorial Day program, which is held at the Greenwood Cemetery in River Falls. Looking on is The chorus Director Matt Hall. of New Richmond.

Each year the "Chordsmen" Travel to River Falls to be a part of this very special program.

They traditionally sign a unique "Armed Forces Medley" which recognizes all of the branches of the military. "It is one of the longest song in our repertoire" said Director Hall, "but the chorus members love to sing it." he added.

The "Chordsmen" have a long standing association with the Legion and they expect to continue it for many years, President Duane Hall said.

There is a strong connection to the Military, by the chorus. They were asked to perform at the dedication of the Veteran's Memorial in Stillwater 2 years ago and annually provide the music for the Stillwater Veteran's service.
